

Titel: Dr.

Name: Daniel Albuquerque

Position\Institut\Universität\Ort und Land

Präsident der Seat of Wisdom Educational Society, Philosoph, Autor, Berater

Kurzvorstellung und wirtschaftsethischer Bezug

Geboren in Indien (1954), promovierte er in Philosophie an der Julius-Maximilians-Universität, Würzburg und war Professor am Goa Institute of Management. Daniel Albuquerque ist Autor des Buches "Business Ethics: Principles and Practices" bei Oxford University Press sowie Gründer und Präsident der Seat of Wisdom Educational Society, welche Programme in den Bereichen Executive Training, Umweltmanagement sowie Arbeitssicherheit anbietet.

Er ist Berater des ehemaligen Ministerpräsidenten und gegenwärtigen stellvertretenden Vorsitzenden des Planning Boards (Kabinettsminister) von Goa sowie Berater der TARU Environment Research Consultants, Delhi und Hyderabad und der Biodiversity Conservation India Ltd (BCIL), Bangalore deren Projekt eines Umwelt-Modells für nachhaltige Städte eine Auszeichnung in Tokio im Jahr 2003 gewann.

Englisch:

Born in India (1954), he obtained his PhD in Philosophy from Julius Maximilian University, Germany and was Professor of Goa Institute of Management. He is now a commissioned writer for the department Advanced Studies in Business Management of Oxford University Press and has authored ten books so far.

Daniel Albuquerque is author of "Business Ethics: Principles and Practices" at Oxford University Press. He is founder and president of Seat of Wisdom Educational Society, which runs programmes in higher professional education, providing wide range of consulting services whose main thrust is executive training, environmental management and industrial safety.

He continues to be the advisor to the former Chief Minister who is presently the Vice Chairman of the Planning Board (Cabinet Minister) of Goa and consultant to TARU Environment Research Consultants, Delhi & Hyderabad and to Biodiversity Conservation India Ltd. (BCIL), Bangalore whose project on environmental model for sustainable cities won an award in Tokyo in 2003.